Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, July 26, 1998 – 10:30 a.m.

(After meditation.)

We are doing an important work on you. We are preparing you for great things. Be confident; be united more and more with the inner Master. You are progressing towards unity. We bless you both. May Jacqueline not worry about times to come; each day has enough trouble of its own. God is great, He helps pure hearts. Let her be surrendered to the Divine. Remain immersed with all this.
