Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, August 20, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

Regain serenity — let it settle inside you in this blessed moment of contact with our hearts. In reading our comments, our brothers and sisters benefit from this energy; it is subtle and its effects can sometimes be felt where one does not expect them. These writings are charged, and they operate at several levels according to each person's receptivity. Our system acts on different levels of consciousness, and there lies its advantage: an extended and substantial field of action, which is not commonplace. In the future, humanity will open up to knowledge as much as is possible in this world. Humans will move past their current condition and enter a different rhythm, more in line with the vibratory system of those times. Our Mission, quite naturally, will adapt to these changes; everything is planned in this direction. The most advanced beings will lead the way, as it has always been and at all levels of consciousness — this is in the order of things. Divine laws plan and organise according to very precise rules, sometimes leaving humans totally at a loss. Whatever may happen, our Mission will leave its mark here below; it will be part of an uplifting and liberating system for the human race. May our brothers and sisters of today rest assured: all these upheavals, although planned for the future, will not happen overnight. It's up to each one to dedicate themselves to what is essential for them, and all will be well, under our blessings.
