Whispers from The Brighter World

Cultivate within yourself this rare essence; it connects you very subtly to our hearts. Love is a redemptive energy; it soothes tensions and embellishes hearts. [This energy is] dedicated to the divine power, to the living Master who channels its effects in order to project it into hearts — in this manner the ritual is accomplished, one that strengthens the beings who are following in his wake. The process is simple: A Master of this stature possesses the secret key, the code allowing him to access this source blessed by the gods. So many people neglect this aspect of life; they have no idea about it, and even if they did, they would not take it into account.

Nothing can be forced in this area. The evolution of a soul takes place gradually, and especially when a powerful call manifests and transforms a heart to the satisfaction of the call. This kind of grace occurs in different ways: gradually or suddenly, in a particular circumstance when the subtle being is willing to receive it and to set out with determination on the path of bliss.

All the means to achieve this status are beneficial. They engage a being in what is best for him or her now and on the path of spiritual fulfilment — the one that makes it possible to not only overcome the heaviness of this world, but also to access what is essential: the culmination of a liberating approach that allows for every possible hope. May each of our brothers and sisters become fully aware of this opportunity, one that that is capable of transforming their lives.

To all, the best. We are helping them in this.
