Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, October 6, 2012 — 10:00 a.m.

Love, this love, embellishes everything. It haloes the brow of the most destitute, transcending race and ways of life — its laws are strict but fair. It is a being's true happiness, as it is sure and inviolable. It is transferred from life to life as a precious treasure and is the heavenly hallmark of an offered heart. Blessed are those who possess it and express it wisely. They are not lacking in our Mission; many of our aspirants are advancing on this path of love. Each of them, in accordance with their deepest aspirations, finds what suits them in this practice. Each one has their own degree of commitment and motivation, along with their inclination to continue cultivating such a subtle energy within themselves. Everything in our Mission — the teachings and the practice — is done to lead the best of the being to reveal itself. The goal lies there. A beautiful soul always ends up finding it, sometimes after many approaches and all kinds of torments. Significant spiritual progress compels the seeker to lighten his or her burdens. Some burdens are particularly heavy, but all seekers deserve a chance to access a higher level of consciousness. We are working towards this while taking commitments and motivations into account. All are progressing, without exception. Such is the law, that which is based on an inescapable cosmic reality. Blessed are those who are advancing against all odds, with a light heart, ardent and confident in the greatness of the incarnate Master who can lighten and embellish the subtle being in the noblest way. In this context, unprecedented transformations are taking place. This opportunity is granted to all. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light.

Babuji