Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 1, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

All these positive testimonies are a delight to your heart; so many abhyasis appreciate these lines. They have sufficient openness of heart; happy are they to enjoy this heavenly manna. It is a blessing for our Mission – the Mission of today, and even more, that of tomorrow.

What will the future be? Humans of today cannot imagine it. They must prepare themselves for what is now, and that prepares tomorrow. Their spiritual journey contributes to this to a large extent since it builds their future life with the positive outcomes it generates. An incarnation is a step in that direction, the implications of which humans cannot realise. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light" – more than ever it is necessary to move forward in this way of the heart; it will increasingly become an absolute necessity. How many people realise it and really care about their potential at this level?

Faith and the eagerness to act accordingly attract grace. A sincere heart is heard; its calls are not futile. It is so good to see a soul blossom and gradually win over what is essential for it. A lifetime is short; time is so precious, and it is so often frittered away in vain actions taken in the world of matter. Building one's life here below is not easy. So many tests follow one after the other; they constitute a vital force, since they strengthen the being in a particular manner. Nothing is useless when humans know how to take advantage of necessary trials. Without them, what would humans be? Such are the divine laws. It is up to each one to adapt and become stronger through them.

Nothing is in vain under our blessings.
