Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, January 20, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Think of the beautiful pathway we have created with these messages; they have started winning over hearts, and this is nowhere near being finished. The words are not trivial; all of them are charged in some manner, and there lies the most important thing. This is, and will remain, something to consider. Nothing happens without reason in our Mission. Abhyasis must remember this aspect of things.

With regard to spirituality, many decisions may be surprising, and so may some texts. Our aspirants must go beyond and try to understand what we are trying to tell them. Truly interiorising oneself can shed new light on events that punctuate the life of our Mission. It is expanding in the world and bringing about changes in the habits of many people. Continually challenging oneself and reassessing – isn't that what is called for in a process like this?

Humans must constantly make adjustments in the course of their lives; none of their lives is immutable in any respect. The many ups and downs of an existence on this Earth constitute a decisive contribution to the evolution of a being. Making the most of the many experiences granted to them is an important aspect, one that our aspirants must also consider in order to progress and benefit from what an incarnation offers in terms of the various events that characterise it. The positive and the negative complement each other for the good of each person; an absolutely perfect life would not be enlightening in our sense of the word. We try to draw the attention of our brothers and sisters to numerous matters. Nothing is simple here below – humans are quite complicated. Each one comes up against karmic laws and must manage the egotistic part of his or her nature.

May all our aspirants do their best. We cannot resolve everything for them; the spiritual aspect remains our top priority. May our love always carry them. Whatever happens, they will never be forgotten.

Blessings to all.
