Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, February 2, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

The love you bear for us gives you wings here to accomplish this very special mission. A totally surrendered heart is the playground of the Divine; it lends itself to what we expect of it, and it does so with fervour. This situation is ideal for us who can assess the effect of these writings on our faithful abhyasis.

Nothing happens without reason in a spiritual way like ours; every situation that is geared towards the good is desired and supported in its effects. It is not always easy for our abhyasis to adapt to changes; some are necessary – life brings them about. In life's constant renewal, changes sustain the manifestation of the Spirit at all levels. A spiritual way like ours benefits from a special support; its action goes far beyond this world. We cannot go further in our remarks; we would not be understood by all.

Each and every one advances at their own pace for their personal evolution, and they find in our teaching a practice that fully supports it. They do not always realise it, but the work is done according to the innermost longing of the soul. Thirst for the Divine manifests itself in its own time. When the call is strong, the seeker finds his or her way, sometimes after several attempts, before choosing that which is suitable.

All will reach the goal according to their personal commitment, faith and determination to go ever further. A fervent heart gets there; it motivates itself over time, carried in its fervour by our hearts, attentive to the sincere call of each one. This is in the order of things; we see to it for the benefit of all and of our Mission.

This is how it is.
