Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, February 21, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Let yourself be carried by love; its scents give a fragrance to your heart, giving it free rein to tune in to us and grasp the subtlety of such an encounter. This contact brings joy and delight to the soul, enables you to capture our words.

How many times has this ritual been performed, and how many times will it happen again! In this way, each and every one can connect with the Masters' hearts and thereby derive the best effects in the course of their practice. These moments are privileged; they lift the being towards a more subtle level of consciousness and they refine perceptions at that level.

Nothing is done in vain in a spiritual way like ours. Everything is simple in appearance, but the results are there – obvious and perceptible for many of our brothers and sisters who are truly committed. We wish for a collective evolution, sufficient to decisively raise the level of consciousness of all those who are following us and who are truly committed to this liberating process. We are repeating it and will continue to do so: a steadfast practice bears fruit whose appearance does not reveal all the flavour, which is subtle and unique. The delight of the soul is what the gods offer to beings who are dedicated to this divine worship. We cannot go any further in these comments. May they be understood by all! Each one has the opportunity here to progress through an approach like the one we propose, in which everything is put in place to achieve this.

Different ways of evolving are open to seekers; the path of simplicity saves valuable time. Going to what is essential deserves some effort, doesn't it? Efforts generate the best, and that is the true goal of any incarnation.

Each and every one is helped according to their personal request. We are truly seeing to this, and the results are very encouraging – why not emphasise it here once more.

That is how it is.
