Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, March 7, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Keeping a childlike heart, while having a strong and determined character, is a valuable resource. Life on Earth demands a lot; it is desirable to face up to things as best one can.

Organising this existence in accordance with material needs, without neglecting what is important for the evolution of the soul, requires balance and a certain wisdom. It is not always easy to harmonise all of it. The family and its demands, and work that is no less demanding – all this is such that the abhyasi must manage everything without neglecting his or her personal path, one through which the soul can continue its journey. Attending to everything is commendable. All efforts in this direction are counted. Isn't it the case for everything here below, down to the slightest detail! Doing everything as well as possible, with the best intentions, indicates an open heart, sensitive to the inner force that guides one, while leading one's steps towards the supreme force. Understanding this in the present incarnation indicates a favourable openness already manifested in previous incarnations. Each incarnation prepares the being and strengthens it in its quest when the aspirant reaches the appropriate level.

Our faithful abhyasis are souls that have long been committed to this heavenly journey. Each of these incarnations offers different possibilities, all of which lead to the same goal: that of spiritual realisation. The way is long, but so very rewarding; different experiences are needed on this level also. The divine ways do not reveal their secrets;

the seeker should let himself or herself be guided by the call he or she perceives deeply within. It is not always easy, given one's country and family background, to follow this inner call. Determination in this direction indicates one's strength and a real need to follow this path of the heart. Feeling this need is a grace. May all be strengthened and helped on the path of spiritual elevation, the ultimate goal of every incarnate being.

Blessings to each and every one of our brothers and sisters.

Babuji