Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 26, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

These numerous writings will have provided valuable assistance to many of our brothers and sisters, and this has only just begun, one might say. The subject matter is vast and yet it always brings us back to what is essential: a surrendered heart, love, and the readiness of each one to engage ever more in this process capable of leading human beings to the best of their abilities. Uniting with the Divine is the ultimate goal; at this highest stage, it leads to the transcendence of self. The subtle being reaches the sacred shores where his or her soul can go into ecstasy. Such is the ritual mentioned herein, one that is meaningless for so many human beings ignorant of even the very principle of evolution on this Earth. Such a situation is unfortunate; our system cannot radically change the world.

Giving sensitive beings a glimpse of the reality of an incarnation followed by a whole process that does not stop with this one deserves an action like ours for the good of the greatest number. Everything is repetitive; such are the rules here below and they are replicated elsewhere; that is the very principle of life. All the other kingdoms are based on these laws. The law of evolution is unavoidable; no one escapes these continual repetitions.

These cycles constitute the very movement of life and include this need for an eternal renewal. Without this, how would life be structured! Divine laws have their reasons for being and for manifesting in this way. Humans, being so small and so limited in everything, cannot understand all these subtleties; they escape them, and this is normal.

Here, we are simply helping as far as possible those who are eager to progress, to refine themselves, and to seize as best they can what we offer them in our own manner.

May all progress. Our work is geared towards that, and we are very attentive to each one's request. May love carry them all, under our blessings.
