Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, July 24, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

All is well for this Sahaj Marg Mission. We have already said that it will leave its mark on these times in the most beautiful manner, and that in the future it will be a way adapted to the understanding of beings evolving little by little towards a more accurate and comprehensive awareness of reality. Nothing happens without reason. Humanity is advancing very slowly, but one day there will be an awakening, and the multitude will open up to knowledge that is the most important and decisive for every human being's open-mindedness. It takes very long periods of time to transform humanity and bring it to a higher level of consciousness.

Important gatherings, such as the ones taking place [worldwide] on this particular day in our Mission, raise the vibratory frequency of beings, thus making them more capable of receiving what is unfolding for them in space: a special transmission in keeping with our wishes. So, regardless of where they are, our abhyasis who are dedicated to this spirit of contemplation and love towards the Master receive the best. These surges of love are very beneficial to our Mission as a whole; they are, in some way, received in a manner that is fitting here.

All is well for our very great son and for the entire Mission that receives during these special days the most sublime of gifts. Let us remain united in this beautiful vibration, celebrating our dearest son and the whole Mission, under our very special blessings.
