Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, August 1, 2013 – 9:30 a.m.

Let people do and say as they please, troublesome people will remain so wherever they are. Our history related to the messages is beyond measure compared to these pitiful chatterings. It has always been so: whatever one does here below, one is exposed to criticism. Weren't the greatest spiritual Masters subjected to it! That is the nature of this world, hence the need to see only the beautiful, the great, that which is being built for the Sahaj Marg Mission. This Mission will leave its mark on these times and take on an important place in the future. Our abhyasis can be convinced of this: they are on the right path, one that truly uplifts the being. Isn't that the real purpose of a spiritual journey?

Action generates results – whether they are visible or not, they transform beings even if, on the human plane, some specifically human tendencies persist. Miracles are not always visible. We do not have magic wands, but what is being accomplished in this beautiful Sahaj Marg Mission is great and will leave its mark on this time. Why not repeat it – humans always need certitudes. In our system, miracles occur behind the scenes, without crowd demonstrations, but they do exist, you can be sure.

The important thing is to love, to act accordingly and to move towards the ultimate peace – there, where beautiful souls find delight. Everything is possible under our blessings, by the grace of the Masters.
