Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, August 16, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Immerse yourself in this place of delight where your soul is enraptured. Could it have any more beautiful prospects in these blessed moments! The reading of these messages can lead to this state, when the words are properly received. Reading, assimilating, is one thing; going beyond, the entire being is nourished. How to explain, to describe, what is precisely indescribable? Fervent abhyasis manage, according to their receptivity at the time, to capture all the subtlety of the vibration these writings can emit. They are not given in vain.

The written word, of all times, has been a valuable asset for the most ancient spiritual paths. Human beings have always needed points of reference, and so will it be tomorrow. Humanity of the future, however evolved it may be, will have the same rituals, the same soul aspirations, determined by this Higher Power that is leading the soul to the shores of the sacred – the soul that is driven by its unquenchable thirst for the Divine. Every being possesses within themselves this treasure, but they have yet to become aware of it and to ensure that they give the best of themselves with a view to their personal achievement.

These writings are only intended to bring the reader to the appropriate stage of evolution in a spiritual way such as ours, where the prospects for this are very promising. Each receives according to their request. May all our abhyasis go to what is essential without wasting time. Such is the goal of our ceaseless action.
