Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 14, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

The great divine plans manifest at the opportune moment and do not always correspond to the projects conceived by humans; that is how it is, shall we say for the time being.

Regarding the Mission, it is setting itself to fulfil its destiny, far beyond what our abhyasis imagine. They are on a path promised to have a beneficial influence that will be felt even more in the future. Humans are subject to trials that will lead them to consider life differently and to understand the need for a spiritual approach to their evolution. This is decisive; all of our abhyasis realise it according to their capabilities and the longing of their souls to rise. Nothing is forced – ever – but as we have said many times, a call is always heard.

As simple as it may seem, our practice yields results that cannot be truly measured at the human level, as they lie beyond what humans can imagine. All is well. Everything is falling into place for the Great Work from which our path will benefit most. May these words further motivate our brothers and sisters and cause them to advance in fervour and in the union of hearts.

Blessings to all.
