Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 21, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

There is a time for everything on Earth; interiorising oneself, attuning to the most subtle aspect of one's being, is a sensible approach. It gives a dimension that can completely change the way you see what is around you and – even more – what is within yourself: that is the important thing.

Each incarnation makes it possible to progress, to move forward and to delve deeper into what is essential – the subtlety of the sensitive being, who is at the same time subjected to the heaviness of the material plane, which has a reality of its own. A spiritual path opens up perspectives; there are so many to discover in the innermost depths of the self, in the intricacies of the spiritual heart, which knows how to protect all its privileges against all odds. One only needs the willingness to interiorise oneself and to follow a true process aimed at uniting oneself with the Divine beyond rituals – however necessary they may be – and this requires true fervour and the will to progress. Nothing is easy, but where would be the merit if no effort was made! Rigour in one's practice bears fruit; everything counts when it comes to achieving the goal, the one that exalts the soul and leads it to bliss. The real treasure lies there; understanding it is a strength and a valuable asset, a real privilege.

To love ennobles the soul; to follow the living Master's footsteps brings results. We can count them and appreciate them in this Mission – one that is so rich in its effects on the hearts of our aspirants who are confident and committed in this process. May all fully benefit from it.
