Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 24, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

Despite the excesses that surround it, many still uphold the spirit of Christmas in all its significance. All peoples have their customs and ideals; what counts is the sincerity towards the event. A spiritual commitment is essential in an incarnation, as it allows the soul to blossom and move towards bliss. There lies the supreme goal, and achieving it is a true blessing. Blessed are the pure hearts dedicated to a unique approach that distinguishes them by their fervour and faith.

Our Mission is attracting many souls who are also seeking. It is blessed by the gods. Very Great Beings have been supporting it from the beginning, sometimes manifesting themselves in their own manner so as to express in some way their approval and the love they have for it, and to grant it their attention. Some of our abhyasis have had and continue to have wonderful experiences, and we are happy for that. The Masters are and will remain the pillars of this Mission, whose scope and action in people's hearts will be confirmed over time. Blessed are those who understand it and seize this rare opportunity in life to embark on an effective path that can provide them with true advancement. The hierarchy is and will always be blessed by higher powers working on the worlds, which are more numerous than Earthlings imagine. It is up to each one to seize this opportunity to move forward and rise above the miasma of materiality. May all be strengthened and motivated as is proper in their commitment.
