Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 4, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

There is always something to say – this world is not perfect, as you all know. Working for your personal evolution contributes to a collective work capable of preparing what must come. We cannot give exact dates, as the notions of time on Earth are not ours. We adapt in certain circumstances, including through these messages, to meet very precise expectations. Spiritual advancement is a precious asset that retains its full value in the cycle of reincarnations. Nothing is lost, either good or bad – this is to be considered – so it is better to apply oneself towards advancing in the right direction, thus saving valuable time. It is important to adapt our teaching to this necessity.

Humans must understand the implications of their smallness before the divine power and act in the most favourable manner possible to follow the right path – the shortest and most productive one. We give certain elements, a very simple way to practice; our method does not require much time in a day, whereas so much time is lost in vain pursuits. Today's world is very disturbed, which is alarming for the proper order and evolution in general. It is up to each and every one to understand and act as best they can, within their own possibilities, under our blessings.
