Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, January 10, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Your fervour is contagious – the beautiful letters you are receiving prove it. This state fosters a subtler approach to our words; they distil a special energy capable of targeting the spiritual heart. The subtlety of the heart cannot really be described; we have given sufficient information on the subject, but there would always be something more to say. When the time comes, we will take our aspirants deeper into the knowledge of these elements, essential for a true spiritual journey.

The heart is the seat of the soul, as we have said often enough; there lies the mystery for seekers who must always go further in their self-discovery. They hold a treasure – it is yet necessary to know it and above all to act in the true sense of owning it. The human being is much subtler than science believes; few researchers in this field have a real approach to the truth. A true spiritual dimension is necessary; this is not given to everyone. The quest for the Divine is, and will remain, the best kept secret in the world of matter, where evolution is very slow compared to that which exists elsewhere. Such are the laws of life; all of us here are working to ensure that humanity progresses more than it is currently doing. Everything is possible; let us work together towards this elevation of consciousness, so that the best may take place and generate a world of peace and love.

Today, your Beloved Babuji has given way to the 'Grand Master' of the Mission, to use your term. This is how it is, dear brothers and sisters – we are united in infinite love.
