Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 28, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

How can one not respect your sufferings, your need for peace and harmonious surroundings! Even if your condition cannot be assessed, you are enduring it as best you can, and you are acting for us against all odds, with so much love. We see beings in all their truth. Who better than we to assess the purity of intent and the beauty of a heart offered and surrendered to our wishes! This remarkable work done here goes well beyond channelling; it amounts to a total commitment and an uncommon purity of intent. Do not be embarrassed, my dear daughter – we are expressing a reality: these messages constitute a real treasure for our Mission. Our very great son, your Master, appreciates them at their true value. He, in his greatness, knows what to do with respect to this extraordinary teaching.

Our spiritual way is full of resources – no human being is perfect – and it allows each of our abhyasis to work on their weaknesses and advance against all odds towards greater surrender, humility and grandeur. A work like this leads to real results. It cannot be measured from day to day, but over time it constitutes a treasure, an asset for all those who follow us with total commitment. One day, our brothers and sisters will become aware of what is, and how far they have come, carried by our love and constant attention.

Blessings.
