Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, April 27, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

Let your heart overflow with love, let it sing this hymn to joy, which wells up in him today. It acquired its autonomy after a hard-fought struggle; it can glide freely to where its impulses lead it. It is no longer a prisoner fastened to its tower; big spaces call it and it glides happily. Dear sister, I share this joy and yours this morning as you can foresee other prospects.

"You benefit from His joy, His happiness; the assessment of the mission is good and nothing can make him happier. Let yourself be carried away, enjoy fully these moments when even the angels are delighted.

"Expel this embarrassment resulting from your being the central point of these messages. What can we do otherwise, and why should we change our way of doing? Each one can see themselves in you and all have the possibility, besides channeling, to live on faith, love and surrender with all the related struggles."

The Venerable

To You alone I gave preference
You left me seated in pain...
Beyond your order to me, what else would I want?
Beyond what you show me, what else would I do? ...
You are Principle and You will be the end:
May my evening be better than my morning.
