Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, February 8, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

You have the refuge of love – is this not a precious treasure? If all human beings were truly willing to consider this potential, the world would be very different. Some people possess it more than others, but all have this potential in them, in each of their cells – this sublime energy of the Divine. Accurately discerning it testifies to a very real need to be nourished by it. Embarking on a spiritual path is the means of generating the best and achieving the desired result, as long as one is determined.

Humans have the privilege of rising and approaching levels of consciousness whose call they feel but cannot really define. Finding the way, the one that suits the person's need, is a real opportunity here below. The heart has its reasons, those that determine the spiritual unfolding of each individual; it can take quite some time to realise the importance of such a discovery. Humans are constantly caught in this illusory process that manifests on the material plane. It is not easy for them to discriminate and to understand where they have to go to find fulfilment in this regard. One day the divine goal will be attained, but much remains to be done, with the necessary efforts to accomplish the best. Nothing can be obtained without difficulty. Persevering with faith and determination leads one where it is suitable to go. Our abhyasis are making progress – do they realise it? It does not seem so, as some are still wandering and showing poor attitudes. Alas, nobody is perfect; if it were otherwise, it would be known and we would not have to work relentlessly for the good of all.
