Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, February 9, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Every step taken in a state of surrender, strengthened by unfailing steadfastness, allows one to bear things – as you do so well for the love of us. As you know, these messages are highly appreciated by fervent hearts sufficiently open to the specific energy they convey. Your Master, in his greatness and correct assessment, knew how to value them for their true worth. That is the characteristic of beings highly vested by the Divine, as is so for his fine person.

Everything takes place slowly on Earth; its pace is in line with its power of attraction. The various worlds are highly diverse. Just like human beings, each world has characteristics that are appropriate to its needs. Creation is a whole, and each element contributes what is needed for the general balance; the same is true in our Mission. Diversity forms a whole, serving the same purpose and cause with respect to human evolution. All this is very complex. We will not dwell on details that go beyond the simple and effective approach we propose – one for the greater good of all beings who trust and follow us on this highly promising path. Life is one and indivisible; rest assured, what it fosters at this level is highly effective and rich in results.

Here, we can assess what those effects produce on the whole Mission. Dissident movements will not endure, and the same is true for the creations of the ego, with which certain people satisfy themselves for the wrong reasons. We know you all, and we are not mistaken: only the pure in heart will see the light; everything is counted, you can be sure.

Blessings.
