Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, March 30, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

You have always given your best. Love carries you and allows you to go to the end of your strength to meet our expectations. Our relationship is out of the ordinary, and these messages have reflected that for a long time now. We don't give them in order for some to remain unknown to our abhyasis; these brothers and sisters are not children. Let us repeat: we are eager for the release of these messages. May our action be properly respected. If not, why continue? These writings, along with all those that already exist, will remain characteristic of this spiritual path, so very rich in its effects. Thus our action occurs at all levels, which is not an ordinary matter. Everything seems so simple in this approach, and yet it bears much fruit, preparing a planned evolution that corresponds to future times. Everything will change, and this world will have to adapt to the circumstances; preparing humans for these upcoming changes remains a priority. Today, right now, we are acting appropriately so that this entire Sahaj Marg Mission can best prepare all our brothers and sisters who are committed to this process and aware of the transformation going on within themselves. Everything takes place slowly, but with exemplary precision; so many hearts are committed and saving precious time in this evolutionary cycle for the good of humanity. It takes quite some time, and effort as well, for the best to be accomplished. One day the divine goal will be attained, and the soul, transported by an unparalleled joy, will finally taste the delights of bliss. This is the way it is.
