Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 3, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Isn't love the connecting thread in this long epic of messages, and the essential element in a matter such as this? Many abhyasis long to be taking down these messages; a rather special mediumship is necessary, and moreover, extraordinary bonds of the heart. Thousands of these writings are yet to be discovered by our abhyasis; may they pay special attention to them and understand that this multitude of pages represents something unique in the annals of our Mission. Very few of the messages are yet known; there are still many to be read and, we hope, appreciated.

This means of transmission is not new. The great spiritual movements that have marked this world up until now have benefited from writings of this kind, to instruct and spiritually nourish their fervent followers. There are many aspects to consider in a process of this kind; steadfastness, rigour, and above all heartfelt commitment facilitate a more fervent and fruitful approach. This serves as a common thread connecting our truly motivated abhyasis to a very specific energy – one that is not necessarily felt by all, as it requires great receptivity. Everyone is equal regarding this aspect of things; real motivation is all it takes for these principles to manifest quite effectively.

A call is always heard – sincerity and love open the heavenly doors, and we act accordingly. No one is ignored; all are equal and have the privilege of being able to advance at their own pace, when the best of the being truly aspires to the Divine. All are helped and supported, with all the love possible.
