Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 12, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Come and rejuvenate yourself in this sacred space where the best is prepared. These very special rendezvous have not been given in vain; what they have generated, and will continue to generate, is of a sacred quality. Time will emphasise this aspect, which has not yet been assessed as it should be. It is not always easy to understand our motivations, but what must be will be.

In the future, our Mission will integrate some highly advanced principles that are currently addressed very discreetly; they will crown this sacred edifice where the best for humanity will increasingly manifest. An unprecedented evolution is coming, and it will usher in a significant dimension where the spiritual will be more evident to all than it is today. It is gratifying to contribute to this planned elevation of humanity. A day will come when truth will be obvious to all who are sensitive to its manifestation. Everything is slow on this Earth; such is not our pace, but we have to make do with it for the common good.

Let us continue to work, to help our brothers and sisters in our own manner; it may not be theirs, but its results are more than visible over time. May love, this very subtle energy, spread across this Earth and preserve what is essential for human evolution. May all our brothers and sisters motivate themselves even more and become the strong links in these planned changes, under our constant blessings.
