Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 19, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

These contacts are no ordinary matter, my dear daughter, as you well know. It is also a story of the heart. Only such bonds can generate what exists here with the manna that constitutes these messages. This nourishment is already widely appreciated, and so will it be more and more – this is how it is. In a spiritual way like ours, nothing is done without good reason. This will become increasingly obvious to everyone in the future.

The world will then revert to a simpler way of life, stripped of the superfluous and focused on true values. At that time, this teaching will take on its full significance. We are not there yet; humanity will have to go through a number of rather special phases before arriving at a world more just and sound on all levels. The here and now should be lived to the fullest; not neglecting this essential aspect of life is an obvious sign of wisdom. Many souls are on their way; in this regard, Sahaj Marg is positioned very favourably, and this makes us happy. These prospects indicate that efforts need to be made in many areas, but the outcome of it all will be very pleasing.

A simple and efficient teaching like ours produces very good results. We appreciate them here, quite rightly, and they truly deserve encouragement. Following a Master with confidence, without dwelling on the vagaries of life, allows a certain detachment conducive to the elevation of the soul. Being actively involved in life, but with a definite wisdom, and devoting space to a process so crucial to the abhyasi, fosters such a highly productive journey – one whose course we support. Many souls are rising; there lies the supreme beauty.

Our special blessings.
