Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, June 21, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

What you are going to write is not trivial; like every day, the pen is inspired and notes down what emanates from our united hearts. Your heart is totally offered, living on the love distilled here in order to touch the hearts of our brothers and sisters. The greater their call, the more they receive; this is an obvious fact, and we note it with pleasure day by day. This ritual has not been instituted in vain. Beautiful souls have quickly understood the importance of these messages, unique among their kind – both in number and in their impact on hearts, whether people are conscious or not of this principle. As for the incarnate Master, he receives them in all their vibrational fulness; he is able to judge what is important for this Mission. Not following him in his decisions is a serious breach of conduct and, above all, shows a complete lack of respect towards him.

We do our best for this way of the heart; it is not yet understood as it should be. Time will do its work in this area as well. It has this privilege: giving importance to that which deserves it – the rest is forgotten without any other consideration. We are pleased to see the evolution of some great abhyasis, fully committed to service, who are on an exemplary path under our blessings; their names will remain associated with that of their Master, for their dedication to him.

The heart is the receptacle of love – it works wonders, sometimes true miracles. Such is this indefinable and so very subtle energy that transforms beings chosen by the Divine. Our Mission benefits greatly from these beings; they contribute to its extension and to the development of its very specific action. One day it will be properly recognised and will spread throughout the world. This is how it is.
