Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 24, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

The thread of this love is endless, it does not break, and it bears no resemblance whatsoever to human loves, which are more changeable and fragile. The love that carries you here, in this unparalleled ritual, defies description. It is exceptional and allows for an exceptional work, so to say, that will be remembered over time. There lies a rare blessing for our Mission and for all those whose hearts are nourished by these messages. Many understand their importance and are advancing as appropriate, carried by grace. This way is blessed, such is the higher will. When the time has come for a substantial transformation, this way will have increasingly established itself here below.

Suffering dispels evil, a fact not easy to understand, yet in this sense, suffering is somehow redemptive. Such are the divine intentions – multi-faceted and, one might say, beyond human comprehension in all their subtlety. Everything has its raison d'être here below, and nothing is done without justification. Tests, like joys, have a hidden meaning and are to be accepted as best as possible, since they contribute to each person's inevitable fate.

May our way help people more and more, allowing them to advance in accord with the major projects ahead. Each of these messages carries a special vibration; may all understand and take advantage of this appropriately. Aspirants who love their Master cannot but trust and follow him with all the love possible. That is wisdom itself – this is how it is.
