Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 26, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

With time, some of our abhyasis realise the importance of these messages. It is time, precisely, that shapes this world and all our brothers and sisters on the path. The commitment of each one is decisive, as it produces in hearts significant changes which we appreciate at their true value. We do see the progress, the transformations. Gradually the being is shaped, rising to a vibration that is more in accord with its own resonance. Subtle bodies have a code, one might say; they appreciate what is offered them and they adapt to this trajectory – one that is not ephemeral, but decisive in the highest degree.

To rise is the profound aspiration of a beautiful soul. There lies its only goal, the true and decisive one in a process where precious time is gained for each one's evolution. What is the human being in the face of eternity? A divine manifestation on the material plane, allowing the soul to be ennobled for the continuation of its journey towards the blessed stage of perfection. All this is complex, so we will leave it at that. However, our aspirants should know that by being committed to such a practice they gain very precious time. Nothing at this level can be defined exactly here below. May all be reassured and happy; Sahaj Marg opens up beautiful prospects for them. We are not offering dreams, but a reality, one that is truly appreciable.

Blessings to all.
