Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, September 11, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

We do not give these messages in vain, you can be sure. They are to be taken as we deem useful, for all our brothers and sisters. They are not immature children; these writings have no other purpose than to help them. Let us continue a little longer, hoping that these lines will be convincing enough for the future of these writings. Human beings sometimes have a limited vision of things; this material world is quite confusing for some of them who lose the true sense of values here below. These messages are numerous; they have done a lot of good in our Mission and beyond – we are happy about it. Simple in approach for everyone, they are intended to be so. Grand and beautiful phrases are not necessarily edifying.

We want the best possible for our abhyasis; to touch hearts is our goal. This organ is by itself and in a certain way the key to their evolution. Sahaj Marg is working to this end; one day, the subtlety of this method will be revealed to its full extent. Here, nothing is in vain, you can be sure. Why would these messages be given for so many years, with an uncommon constancy, if they did not have their 'raison d'être'. It is up to each and every one to act in the best way for their own good and that of the entire Mission – it forms a whole, and the latter is the fruit of the divine will. So it is.
