Don't worry about your literary talent. The interest of these messages lies elsewhere. Let us not revert to your interventions; we have expressed ourselves on the issue. We use a simple style, accessible to each one and capable of touching hearts: it is the purpose of the operation. The truth is accessible to all, on the condition one does not let himself be dragged into the meanders of the intellect. A true spiritual process brings the most scholarly beings back to simplicity. To immerse oneself in the divine presence does not require anything else but total surrender of the humanly developed personality. 'To become like small children again' means that. To have access to the Immutable, to communicate inside with the Divine, is to disregard what you are, to develop yourself a heart worthy of seeing its true nature blossom, and be reshaped according to our criteria. We do not ask you to lose this personality acquired through upbringing and education. We only expect you to put things in perspective and focus on the main thing: the goal, i.e. spareness, love and trust in your Masters who have the power to propel you to the highest level. There are choices to make; one should know what one wants and offer oneself to the Divine, if such is the aspiration of the soul which in the final analysis must prevail. Think about it."
