Sunday, December 21, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear sister, be reassured about me, be serene about all of this. All these sufferings are finally over; only the last formalities remain, and thus all will be well. Another life begins – it will remain very attentive to the continuation of this Mission and to my successor, for whom nothing will be easy. But he will prevail and he will bring the complementary touch to what is already there, to perfect the sacred edifice of this spiritual way carried by the higher powers.

May all our brothers and sisters look to the future serenely. My action continues here, where a broader vision is offered to me, making things easier.

Rejoining my divine Grand Master is a true joy; he is astounding in beauty and his greatness dazzles me. May all be at peace, all is well for me. This well-deserved rest, according to our Beloved Babuji, allows me to be reunited with him and to henceforth work beside him, for my greatest happiness. "Doesn't everything have its raison d' être!" Here, more than elsewhere, it is possible to witness it; all is well like this. Be happy for the deliverance of your Master; he regains serenity, and his love for the whole Mission is only greater for it.

To all the brothers and sisters, the best of his support and undying love. Special blessings on this entire Mission loved so much, and to all its faithful abhyasis, a lot of love.

From their Master,

Parthasarathi