Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, January 16, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Immerse yourself in the heart of silence, where the uncertainties of this world give way to a true serenity, one that calms the entire being. This refuge is truly precious; nothing can match it. Here the intellect does not rule, energies become regulated and the heart is happy. Such are the benefits of such a meditation. When it is well understood and lived in a state of surrender to the Master, it bears fruit whose delights leave traces, and we can measure their effects. Over the long term, they transform the abhyasi; for us the results are visible, where for you, they cannot be seen.

Nothing here is in vain. For us, having gone beyond the world of illusion, the reality of each person appears as it truly is. The years produce results whose effects cannot be fully evaluated by an incarnate Master. Here, it is not the same. We are happy to be able to draw up a more than positive evaluation of this method. Our dearest Parthasarathi marvels at what he is discovering, beyond the reach of an incarnate being, however great he or she may be. The blinders of materiality put a veil on 'true reality', that which characterises the levels of consciousness where we are.

May you all truly realise how much this method can bring you, and make the choices that are required to reach the goal, the one this method of Sahaj Marg allows you to reach. Carried, you are, by our unceasing action, to the extent of your personal commitment. We cannot force anything; we can only respond to your personal aspirations and even allow you to surpass them. It is up to each and every one of you to decide and seize this unique opportunity to advance.

To all of you, the best from our united hearts.
