Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, January 25, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Relax, life goes on; what must be will be. You have always done your best; to serve is your priority, what more could you ask! Each person in the Mission plays his or her role; all have their importance, they are the links of a chain that stretches around the world and that will defy time. These messages will have to be treasured; in many countries they will constitute documents of considerable value for our Mission. The abhyasis of the future will be able to assess these words at their true value. So many changes will occur on Earth, human perceptions will become more refined; following a spiritual path like this one will allow for a more significant advancement.

Everything is falling into place as well as possible; these upheavals are not for tomorrow, but some aspects of life here below are to be anticipated from this point forward. The way of Sahaj Marg will leave its mark on the world. There are strong indications today of its impact in various countries, and this is just the beginning. Such are the divine ways. They are inescapable, we have said it often enough.

May all our brothers and sisters become aware of this reality and benefit fully from the opportunity offered them in an incarnation, of this considerable advancement in a path of the heart that has not yet revealed all its treasures.

Blessings to all.
