Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 27, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Relax and come join us in this safe haven where, totally surrendered, you capture our words with uncommon sensitivity. You live on this love, it carries you throughout the days and allows you to withstand sufferings hardly visible to the eyes of others. For our part, we know and are familiar with each one's life, more precisely in the subtle aspects where the best of the being is built. We pay little attention to materiality; this world is what it is. Although we are working for it to evolve towards the best, our true field of action lies elsewhere. The various bodies of a human being require a subtle harmonising of vibrations – our method contributes to this. Its effects remain mostly hidden, but they do exist, you can be sure of it. This path will defy time; it is adapted to human evolution, and in a certain way prepares what must come and establish itself here below.

Humans are called to change on all levels. Everything is being put in place as of now for a very perceptible and effective evolution of the being. New times will come; a different race will evolve in an environment well suited to its spiritual evolution, in a world barely imaginable today, where so much remains to be done for the good of all. Modestly, yet with real strengths, our way is working for the good of everyone, and one day, the divine purpose will be achieved.

This is how it is.
