Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, January 28, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Love is enchanting, and at this level, it can work miracles. It creates a special vibration that leads to osmosis. Spiritual life promotes subtle states whose beauty cannot but delight the soul and, even more, embellish it. Here, we are in a domain where reason is obsolete. God's ways remain mysterious to humans, and this is not about to change. Advancing spiritually refines perceptions and can induce a state of bliss. Blessed are those who reach this stage. All this is experienced in the shadows, shall we say, in the silence of the heart, where the best is worked out. An approach of this kind promotes an awakening, one that transforms the being for his or her personal elevation. Ultimately, this is the purpose of an incarnation; sometimes it takes many incarnations to attain it.

Our abhyasis have found the path, one that can help them on this long journey where many obstacles have to be overcome. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see the light – we are working towards it. Although not easy to achieve, this goal is the main objective of our Mission. It is up to one and all to be committed, to motivate themselves and to reach it, carried by our action and our unceasing blessings.
