Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 31, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

This long road of messages is not ordinary. Here, mediumship is not enough, commitment of the heart and righteousness prevail. The vibrational charge of these texts is unprecedented. It wins over the reader in the most subtle depth of his or her being. After all this time we can measure the effects, and the results are very positive; thus is accomplished what is to be.

Being a preceptor is not a trivial matter. This commitment towards the Master and the entire hierarchy is to be considered before all else. Changes must sometimes take place in order to meet the needs of the moment. We appreciate the steadfastness and the work being accomplished by the majority of our brothers and sisters in their respective responsibilities. A spiritual path like ours, because of its constant expansion, must be managed at all levels by abhyasis who are truly committed to the Master, as honestly as possible. Most of our senior brothers and sisters have done their best, while managing to control an ego that can sometimes be devastating; there are examples to support these comments. Nothing is ever perfect, but so many of our functionaries who are fully committed do behave with propriety, faith, and respect towards the incarnate Master and the hierarchy that is attentive and active, in its own manner.

We wish the best to all. Carried they are, and supported, according to their call, by our constant blessings.
