Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, February 4, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

The Sahaj Marg Mission will evolve over time, as it has since its inception. Other principles will have to be considered and new structures established quite naturally, along with their corresponding management. The Mission's expansion in the world will call for new rules, particularly with regard to preceptorship; it will have to be redefined in time and renewed according to circumstances.

A real commitment is at the base of any mission, and time will show how those in charge are working for this unique way of the heart. Everything is taken into account; we want the best for the whole of this Mission and for each of our brothers and sisters committed in their own way to this extraordinary journey. Big changes will take place on Earth. Our Mission will not only be able to adapt, it will increase in effectiveness to meet a growing demand from sincere hearts aspiring to rise spiritually. The beautiful souls who have worked in this wonderful path of Sahaj Marg do not forget it, they continue in their own way to act for its good. The Masters are so very attentive to this entire Mission; nothing escapes them. Everything is counted, of this you can be sure. Committing oneself in serving the Masters is no trivial matter; supporting the incarnate Master is a priority, a significant aspect of this process to which we attach great importance.

Acting with your heart with determination is the most beautiful commitment there is; the spiritual Master does the rest by working with the powers vested in him to actualize what is taking shape at our level. All is well for Sahaj Marg. It is up to all of you to fully commit yourselves under our blessings.
