Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, February 20, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

These messages will remain in the hearts of many of our brothers and sisters; in their own way they have marked the journey of these hearts and opened up in them other perspectives. This spiritual path has solid foundations; time strengthens these and allows each person to grow according to his or her deepest aspirations. Nothing can be forced – such is not the aim – only a deep and sincere call enables one to truly advance and fully benefit from this extraordinary method. It prepares future times in which an important spiritual evolution will take place, one that has long been foreseen. Everything is slow on this Earth, yet what is planned does happen; it is unavoidable.

The world of the future will be very different – in every respect – and so will human beings. May wisdom one day manifest here below and erase for good the endless struggles, hatreds and other types of violence so very damaging to a certain balance. We are in no way judging, that is neither the intention nor the purpose of these remarks. With this rather special practice, may we simply lead our brothers and sisters to a balance satisfactory in every respect. Life here below is not simple. It is an eternal struggle, with more or less difficulty, yet it allows human beings to advance once they become aware of this reality within themselves – the presence of the Divine. The goal to be reached is the ultimate connection with the absolute power, a power that inhabits them but one they do not discern so well. A day will come when this will be.

Blessings to all.
