Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, February 23, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Write with your heart and the words will come. For a long time we have been inspiring them in you, and as you know, they never fail. You tune in to us with Love, and this fact is important. Being a medium is not enough for accomplishing what is happening here; the ties of the heart are the real reason for this unprecedented occurrence. This goes way back in time. Being in the service of the Divine is not new to you. Do not feel embarrassed like you do – why couldn't we evoke here one of the important aspects promoting the reception of these sacred texts! They call for respect and even, one might say, veneration for the Masters of this Mission who inspire them. Disrespecting these writings is unworthy of those who persist in doing so. No matter. They exist and they will defy time – that is the only good reason to carry on as long as possible with this unusual odyssey, in a world focused on materiality.

Doesn't everything have its raison d'être! These writings will remain a cherished asset in this Sahaj Marg Mission, whose trajectory will defy time. Ashrams will be built, and many of our abhyasis will involve themselves more and more in this initiatory journey, discreet but effective. The coming century will be decisive for humanity. It is up to each and every one to involve themselves in their own manner; they will not regret it. One day, the divine goal will be attained – is it not the objective of this Mission.
