Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 2, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Here reigns harmony; these messages take shape here – they try in their own way to touch hearts, to help them on this perilous path of life. Our abhyasis too are caught up in this movement that they cannot fully control. Destiny's part is there, and everyone must live with it; this is inescapable.

Until the end, life holds surprises, and they are not always pleasant. Knowing to accept them and trying to understand their meaning is wisdom itself. How many destinies end up meeting the true wishes of the human being! Engaging in a spiritual way allows one to make sense of things, to protect oneself by going beyond materialism. An incarnation is but a brief passage in the face of eternity; in many circumstances it is necessary to put things into perspective in order to see, beyond appearances, the true signs of destiny.

It takes time on this Earth to come to understand the essential aspects that characterise an incarnation; each incarnation is a link in a vast chain where intersecting destinies are interposed to accomplish what must be. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être! Acceptance is a sign of wisdom; it saves valuable time, it helps one move beyond events and rise above materiality. Thus are hurdles overcome, avoiding stagnation and furthering this quest for the Divine, to which, conscious of it or not, all human beings aspire. Everything in its own time: one day the divine goal is achieved; this way is pursuing it, for the good of all.
