Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, May 18, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Such a love story cannot end – it will leave traces and will have an indelible influence on this Mission. One might say that the soul of the Mission is being expressed here. Being divinely inspired, these texts will increasingly help our brothers and sisters who are open to this discourse.

Our dear Kamlesh is beginning his journey with strength. This journey will henceforth be marked by his personality, which is well suited to the work he has to carry out and expand throughout the world. We will guide him as best as possible according to needs that will become increasingly evident. The Mission must be shaped further in order to meet a growing call. This world is subjected to so many disturbances, fluctuations of all kinds, which destablise a great number of human beings.

The recourse of faith in a higher power is a major asset for many who seek to understand the reason for an incarnation, specifically the one they have to live. Sahaj Marg does not rigorously impose anything – it suggests. It helps a lot of brothers and sisters by genuinely acting on their personal equilibrium. Subtlety is at work in this matter; the transmission is adapted to the needs of each person and has its effects, you can be sure. This way of the heart works discreetly but effectively, and we can repeat, for the welfare of all. One day, the divine goal will be achieved and then another phase will begin – namely, the transcendence of the Spirit in all its states. So it is.
