Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 2, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Everything keeps repeating itself in this world, and these writings are no exception to the rule; we return to certain topics insistently, quite simply for the good of all. Our abhyasis, like all human beings, must each face their own destiny. We cannot change it, but only make sure they view it differently and are able to make the best of it. Spiritual practice awakens consciousness and allows one to better delineate what is important for personal growth. A lifetime is short; in our way, everyone is offered the opportunity to progress, to act upon the subtle being, which is their true personality. This personality is revealed over time and is the result of past lives and experiences that leave traces during this long journey towards the ultimate goal. Indeed it takes time to awaken consciousness, to allow each one to express his or her best, thereby promoting this uncommon approach that is capable of revealing what is essential in oneself. We can now see the results of this extraordinary work that is taking place in our way; it is very positive, and this is quite encouraging.

A new era is coming, and humans will have to adapt as they have always done in the past. Evolution on this Earth must go through phases of great change in order to better continue its progress. Let our abhyasis rest assured – they will not experience the terror of hell as is assumed in some schools of thought. We prefer to encourage them to steadfastly practice in order to advance and thus divest themselves of the unnecessary elements hindering their progress.

To all, our special encouragement and blessings.
