Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 9, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Our heart contacts cannot stop. What they generate with these many messages is something out of the ordinary. Let us carry on just a little longer as you are able. Here, the ego does not come into play; love is the only energy that can produce this outcome, unprecedented in the history of a spiritual path. The current means of communication are of such magnitude that they benefit these writings, allowing for their rapid dissemination. Everything moves quickly in this world of matter. Other laws nevertheless govern these writings, and on the essential points, the human being can only bow down and comply with this requirement. As one advances spiritually, a new light makes it possible to consider life differently and give it a deeper meaning that goes well beyond individual needs.

Engaging in such a practice opens up perspectives not only on the present, but also on the future; here, reincarnation takes on its full meaning. Following a spiritual path allows for the present to be changed and also prepares the future differently. Everything can change from one lifetime to the next, except for this attainment that is without equal and capable of defying time.

We repeat ourselves ceaselessly to help as best as possible and to raise the seeker's awareness on the importance of his or her personal commitment. Grace supports a sincere faith on this journey that leads to the best that can be; it is not bestowed in vain. May all achieve the goal that is pursued – namely, the most rewarding one.

Blessings.
