Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 12, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

To serve us at all costs – such is your wish, my dear daughter. It is also the wish of many of our brothers and sisters who are fully involved in serving this beautiful Sahaj Marg Mission. In this regard, the call of the heart is crucial. Reason cannot support everything; it takes a deep motivation to enable a real approach. The process within a spiritual way such as this is promising in many respects. It elevates the soul, allowing aspirants to do their best in this commitment. Time is precious; we can see here the importance of the experience of brothers and sisters who have come to join us. They make the most of it in terms of their progress towards the ultimate goal. Nothing is lost. Each step is decisive and contributes to the transformation of the being when such transformation is deeply felt and sought after for good reasons.

How can we not repeat ourselves when it comes to such essential facts: we want the best for all, and each one receives according to his or her appeal and capacity to receive. Everything is done for the good of each one. We cannot force anything, only encourage predestined souls to waste no time and to put such potential to good use. An incarnation is short in the face of the Eternal. Everything has its raison d'être, and Sahaj Marg operates in the best possible way to help our brothers and sisters. Nothing is ever simple, but the success is worth it, you can be sure. So blessed indeed are the pure hearts involved in this journey!

To all, the best.
