Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, June 27, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Let yourself be carried by that grace which enraptures the soul. When the call is strong, grace manifests and operates as it pleases. This love is redeeming. It transforms the entire being offered to its splendour. How can we not say and repeat that such is the case for this extraordinary process; when beings commit totally, they reach the goal. We help them in their celestial quest. It is so beautiful to see a soul rise, distinguish itself from the material world and refine itself as it suits us in order to achieve the best that can be. This already long journey of Sahaj Marg has produced very good results. We are very pleased about it and above all encouraged to carry on even more ardently with this process, for the good of a large number of brothers and sisters who are invested and confident in our action.

In the current era, it is good to have an incarnate Master, the custodian of our powers. We guide him and we support him as much as possible in materialising the effects of our action. Kamlesh is very receptive and responsive to this action; his subtlety is great, and he captures us perfectly in the help we give him daily, even if it cannot be easily assessed. No matter – the merging of our hearts is there, active in its effects. It is up to each of our brothers and sisters to take stock, to follow the best path in order to glimpse what an ardent and committed heart longs for: the divine splendour manifested in the world of humans, to the extent that it is called forth.

To all, special blessings.
