Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, September 14, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear son,

This Sahaj Marg Mission is called to expand in an unprecedented manner. It will have to adapt in order to bring to each one of our aspirants what is suitable for them. A new organisation is being established, and that is for the good of all; this is the way life is in its most unexpected and surprising twists and turns. What matters is the impact of this method on hearts longing for true spiritual progress. Nothing is gained without a minimum of commitment. The practice is not demanding, but it is advisable to comply with it as much as possible. We want the best for all. The results in some of our aspirants go beyond our expectations. Sahaj Marg, in its rather unusual method, is more productive of the best than it may seem. Time gives it even more potency; its aura is growing in accordance with the divine plans. Rest assured, nothing is insignificant, everything has its raison d'être; the future can only confirm these comments.

Our best wishes for a total commitment on the part of the greatest number of our brothers and sisters – and for you, dearest Kamlesh, the best possible, under our ceaseless blessings.

Babuji
