Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, October 28, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

All these messages represent a priceless asset. They are not yet recognised as such by all, but for many these writings are important and a necessary contribution to their daily practice. They nourish the mind and the heart in its deep aspiration for the Divine, a yearning not always recognised by humans who are captured and caught up in the movement of life in all its manifestations. The call of the heart is latent in everyone; specific circumstances sometimes bring it out, and in a lasting way. There the main thing is accomplished, that which is most important for the human being on his or her journey towards the Divine – a journey that is decisive in a life. When the soul opens to the transcendence of the Spirit, the true meaning of life is revealed and finally defined in all its fullness, being recognised as the most precious asset existing in this world.

An incarnation is short compared to eternity. What is life: 'a breath, a nothing and nothing more'; it nonetheless deserves an unreserved commitment when the being is revealed to itself in all its original beauty. One should then divest oneself of the unnecessary and avoid wasting time – which is precious in more ways than one. Each incarnation is decisive in this great divine scheme, where what is accomplished is beyond the reach of human understanding. This power is indescribable; recognising and revering it denotes a certain wisdom that opens the gates of bliss. All our abhyasis are on their way, a way that is surely widening for this Mission.

The best to all, carried by our wishes, the most potent ones.
