Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, December 4, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Each one of our brothers and sisters has their struggles, difficulties, and even sufferings. Such is this world – quite painful in some respects, yet gratifying when it is supported by a spiritual process in which the incarnate Master is endowed with powers he would not have on other planes of consciousness. This fact is a grace worth emphasising once again for this Sahaj Marg Mission, so much more active than it would seem. There are a certain number of things that human beings are unable to assess with regard to their evolution, particularly in terms of what this spiritual path provides concerning the subtlety of the sensitive points of the heart. Here, a very special work takes place that is not yet detected in an objective way. Regardless, the essential is there, and the results prove it. After all these years we can evaluate this, and we rejoice in this outcome. It can only provide further motivation for us and for all our brothers and sisters in their respective roles.

Nothing is perfect in this world; a spiritual Master is no exception to this principle. He can make mistakes, we all have, but by divine grace we have the opportunity to make up for them when necessary. No resentment should remain on a path like this; that would curb the pursuit of an expected and necessary action. May
