Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 31, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Benefiting from a living Master is a precious asset. He accomplishes in this world more than we can do ourselves, even though we are endowed with broad powers. There are differing planes of consciousness, each allowing very specific actions that complement one another in building a definitive and solid structure for this Mission. Everything takes its place according to the wishes of the united Masters.

We are preparing for this Mission what will definitively position it at a very satisfactory level. Without undue constraints and unnecessary speech, the practice responds to present-day life. What is being done is justified as it truly helps our brothers and sisters who are committed to this approach. Power has no place in this system; only an effective action meets our expectations. The incarnate Master is endowed with means that can meet the diverse requirements of such a movement whose effects are unique; of this you can be sure. May all our brothers and sisters truly motivate themselves and benefit from the opportunity offered to them to follow an extraordinary path. Our dear Parthasarathi, who is among us here, marvels at the evolution on the material level of this path for which he has given so much.

At this time of season's greetings, according to your culture, we all wish the best for the entire Mission and for each of our brothers and sisters, whom we follow with love.

That is how it is.
